Detailed Terms:

1. Any form of visual art is acceptable with the proviso that the work be presented professionally and be portable and suitable for public display either at the Pomerene Center for the Arts in Coshocoton, Ohio or outdoors in the artPark on Main Street in Coshocoton, Ohio. All indoor wall art must be fitted with D-rings or screw eyes and ready to hang. Questions concerning size should be directed to Anne Cornell pomerenearts@gmail.com
2. The works may be traditional forms or novel forms, abstract, classical or commercial; no topic restrictions or requirements; an artist may submit up to three works.
3. Prizes will be awarded to artists for the body of work (1-3 pieces) entered. Please note, 1 piece is no less competitive than 3. The work will be judged according to the following criteria: Technique. There is technical competence or sophistication in this work. Originality. There is something new here in content and the way it's being expressed. Resonance. This work has the power to evoke feeling.
4. The juror will select the top seven contenders and the 1st and 2nd prizes. A vote by the public will take place through the duration of the exhibit and will determine the People's Choice prize from the top seven. All decisions are final.

5. Submitter must have created the artwork in 2016 or 2017 and should either own the work or obtain written permission from the owner consigning rights to the Pomerene Center for the Arts to publish photographs (physical or electronic) in connection with the prize at any time. Names of winners will be announced publicly.
6. Work will remain on exhibit for the entirety of the show through Friday September 22. Artists are responsible for retrieving their work 9am-5pm Saturday, September 23 or 1-5pm Monday September 25. Work to be returned by post will be repacked and sent the week of September 26 in the original prepaid shipping container.
7. There are no entry fees.
8. Insurance – artists are responsible for insuring their own work.
9. Shipping – shipping costs (including return shipping) are the responsibility of the artist.
10. Sales – Work submitted can be, but is not required to be, for sale. The Pomerene Center will retain a 20% commission for any works sold.
