Tony has devised a series of build-it-up/tear-it-down challenges for September 14th. These challenges are designed to encourage creative and technical development. On September 21st, as builders work to turn their final designs into finished pieces, Tony will be there to help problem solve. The workshop will finish with a short exhibition complete with photo ops for you and your piece.

Please complete the simple form below and send with the Workshop Fee—$57 (guest)/ $52 (Pomerene friend)/ Special offer $70 for 2—made payable to the Pomerene Center for the Arts. Send to 317 Mulberry Street, Coshocton, Ohio 43812
