limit 10 people, all levels, 15 yrs or older

Saturday, October 18, 2014 | 9am-4pm

This workshop is designed to help students learn to watercolor in a spontaneous and innovative way while developing their own personal style. All you need is a sense of adventure! Emphasis will be placed on water ratio of paper and paint brush, color combinations, and elements and principals of design. My goal is to help students to be more confident while discovering new approaches and concepts to turn an ordinary painting into a "wow!"
