

promoting community involvement in the arts

Crow Homecoming Workshop with DANCING WHEELS

limit 8 people of all ages with or without physical disabilities

Saturday, November 8, 2014 | 11:00am-12:30pm

at the Coshocton Salvation Army gymnasium, accessible from Chestnut Street across from the court square or the parking lot south of the 219 4th Street entrance.

FREE DANCE WORKSHOP with DANCING WHEELS, a mixed ability professional dance company. LEARN from Mary Verdi-Fletcher, the first professional wheelchair dancer in the U.S. and dancers from the company she founded in Cleveland in 1980. Born with spina bifida, Mary has made her dream of offering others with disabilities full and equal access into the world of dance. The Dancing Wheels Company embodies the message of equality and accessibility.

Please complete the simple form below and send to the Pomerene Center for the Arts. Send to 317 Mulberry Street, Coshocton, Ohio 43812

Because we can only accept 8 people for this workshop, please let us know

In one or two sentences why you want to take this workshop with Dancing Wheels:

Name

Age

Address

City, State & zip

Phone

Email

(please check one) I am a person with without a physical disability

I am able to participate in the 1pm parade performance following the workshop